2024 COACH COMMENT

Lance will be primarily used as a situational pitcher, hitter or base runner. Has battled injuries his entire playing career with us. But, he's remained an incredible teammate and he's looking to own some successes in 2024.

2023 COACH COMMENT

Lance has battle injuries and is looking to bounce back in 2023. IF he stays healthy he'll see time on the Junior Varsity level pitching and playing infield.

2022 COACH COMMENT

Lance is a young sophomore. At the sophomore and maybe junior varsity level we could see Lance come into his own offensively and/or defensively. He'll see some mound time as well. Could be a breakout year?

2021 COACH COMMENT

Lance is new to the program and will be spending his freshman year moving around the outfield/infield and even a little pitching. Arm and bat should continue to develop. A young 9th grader with room to grow.

PLANS AFTER HIGH SCHOOL

Attend school at Salt Lake Community College
