2024 COACH COMMENT

Atticus will be used primarily as the Junior Varsity shortstop this season. He could also see time at the Varsity level at the same position. He could break the Varsity line-up in the outfield as well if his bat plays at that level.

2023 COACH COMMENT

His freshman year showed he has abilities as a fielder and hitter. Has grown and is starting to "look the part" of a high school baseball player. Could be a nice year ahead for him? Expectations are up for him with our staff.

2022 COACH COMMENT

An infielder who will go get the ball and has some good fielding skills. Young for sure and the arm strength will come with age and size. Shows flashes of offensive potential. Will see a lot of innings as Shortstop this season.
