2024 COACH COMMENT

More expectation will be put on Diego this Spring. Especially with the transfer portal taking a catcher from us. Diego will be catching at the JV level this season. He continues working on his defense and pitch selection at the plate. If he learns from each at bat and from each inning as a catcher he could have a pretty good year.

2023 COACH COMMENT

Diego is entering his first full year of baseball in the United States. Comes to us by way of Venezuela. He will be primarily catching at the sophomore level. As with young catchers in high school he will continue to work on the many fundamentals of that position. Shows flashes of swinging a big bat with some power.
