2024 COACH COMMENT

An important year primarily on the mound for Danny. Whether it's JV ball or bites on Varsity. Is that live arm potential going to show up this year? Has good stuff and will have a good year if he learns from each pitch and each inning. If this young Junior shows consistency with each game on the mound he could put himself in a good position on the pitching depth chart in 2025. He'll also play 3B and 2B at the JV level.

2023 COACH COMMENT

Danny will see innings on the mound at the Sophomore and JV levels this Spring. Is still showing a good upside and live arm potential. The innings he'll play this year at both levels should set him up for a nice junior year.

2022 COACH COMMENT

Danny comes into the program with a lot of innings on the mound from his youth leagues. It may take a few years to see his real potential on the mound. A good glove in the infield and makes good contact at the plate.
