2024 COACH COMMENT

Hadden will play primarily in the outfield. He's got potential offensively and could help us drive in runs in the bottom half of the order. Could sneak in a little first base action for us as in the past.

2023 COACH COMMENT

Hadden is a versatile player at the outfield and 1B positions. Is right there in the mix with a few others for some Varsity time potentially. Will primarily play JV. Coaches anticipate a potential big offensive year in 2023.

2022 COACH COMMENT

It would be expected to see Hadden bouncing back and forth from the sophomore and junior varsity teams. Defensively he may be playing infield, outfield or even catcher. Offensively, could be a good year for him!

2021 COACH COMMENT

Making the jump from 13U to high school. His running speed and ability to hit will make this transition work. Like most ninth graders Hadden will continue to work on defense to round out his game.

PLANS AFTER HIGH SCHOOL

Attend school at Salt Lake Community College.
