2024 COACH COMMENT

Diego will have every opportunity to establish himself as one of the starters on the Varsity pitching staff. He's shown his capabilities of getting strike outs against Varsity competition. He had a good Summer in 2023 and we're looking for that to continue. His velocity is up which will help him this Spring. He also shows he can produce offensively. He could play outfield as well for us. Could play a big role in 2024.

2023 COACH COMMENT

Showed potential as a Sophomore. Been working in the off-season in the weightroom and playing travel ball. If he can dial it in on the mound he could see Varsity time at that position. Shows offensive upside as well.

2022 COACH COMMENT

A transfer from Taylorsville High who will probably play quite a bit on the sophomore level. Winter Workouts showed a lot of pitches and potential. Still work to be done as with most Sophomores, but there is upside here.

PLANS AFTER HIGH SCHOOL

Will play college baseball at Yakima Valley Community College in Yakima, Washington.
